Schulte has nine working days, beginning today, to prepare his rejuvenated Tigers for the invasion of the cohorts from the Western border. Missouri rooters believe that in nine days Schulte can perfect a fighting organization that will make things interesting for Beau Olcott and his Jayhawk tribe.

But don't let the affair at Lawrence Saturday make you believe that Kansas hasn't a real football team. It will take every ounce of Tiger fight to win Thanksgiving Day.

Teamwork a Pleasing

Feature of Drake Game. One of the most pleasing features men worked together. So far this season the work of the Missouri team has been largely the work of individuals. But while there were stars in coats and suits in good condition. We the Drake game, let it be said that evkinds. W. H. Leebrick, 803 Walnut was in there fighting and working in Gallion. It was difficult to pick the Missouri stars in the Drake game. They all looked good. Reppy showed what he is capable of doing. He carried the ball for good gains around the ends, and was always good for an advance through the line. If Reppy is given the least bit of a hole to squirm through, his method of plunging enables him to dive through at least as far as the secondary defense. Many times he seems to make the hole him-

Stankowski at quarterback made big hit with the rooters. Every ounce of "Stan's" 130 pounds was fighting all the time; he worked well in interference and showed good judgment in shoes and clothes. We pay top prices directing the plays. Many believe he will start in the Kansas game.

From Captain Speelman down, the line got the jump on the opposition every time.

Pittam and White will be back in narness this week and Old Ironsides Lansing is expected to recover from his injuries in time to get in the Kansas game. Even if he doesn't his place will be well filled by his understudy, Hamilton. Woody probably will be the only man not fit for the big strug-

The Expected Happened Over in Jayhawk Town.

Bear stories from Lincoln h ed that the Cornhuskers were really fearing the Jayhawks; more tales from Lawrence expressed the thought that the Kansans were "due," but very few-in Columbia, at least-were surprised at the outcome of the annual Kansas-Nebraska contest, which the Huskers won, 33 to 0.

Rutherford and Chamberlain had pretty much their own way. However, the result of the game doesn't show any weakness on Kansas' part; it simply proves that Jumbo Steihm has one of the best elevens in the country.

"Old football men say that the Nebraska forwards outcharged the Kansas line," writes C. E. McBride in the Kansas City Star, "making it easier for the Husker backs to get under way. Kansas waited to meet the play on the line of scrimmage, while the Nebraska line went in to meet the Kansas charges."

"Swede" Carlson heard the call from Lawrence and responded; Tom Shevlin went from the West to New Haven, Conn., only two weeks ago. But while the new Yale was executing a miracle in defeating Princeton, Carlson's efforts to gain a Nebraska defeat for the Jayhawks were all in vain.

While Missouri and Kansas were playing their last games preliminary to their big clash, Ames sprung a surprise by winning from Iowa, 16 to 0, Washington made her season successful by defeating St. Louis U., 13 to 7, and Oklahoma cinched her title to the Southwestern championship trouncing Arkansas, 23 to 0.

Times of football doth remind us How we wrote our names in blood; And departing, left behind us Half our faces in the mud.

Columbia has more football teams than any other city of its size in the state, possibly in the country. Here we have teams of all sizes, all degrees of training, and very nearly of all shades of color. They range in size from the teams from the ward schools. composed of boys in the fifth and sixth grades, to the Varsity Tigers. Between these two classes of elevens are the Columbia High and University High teams, the various club and boarding louse teams, and the department and class teams of the University. Rastus Finney's Black Tigers represent our eepest local color. Every afternoon Rollins Field fairly swarms with football and would-be football players, some in uniform and some partly so.
